

1st International Symposium

“Innovation for Ageing Society”

17-18th, March 2020

This symposium is held to promote networking amongst researchers around the world and to activate discussions to solve common issues the international community faces. The subject for 2020 is “Innovation for Ageing Society”.

PROGRAMME

	Time	Program
Day 1	afternoon	Registration
	18:00-18:10	Opening remark
	18:10-18:40	Keynote speech 1
	18:40-19:10	Keynote speech 2
	19:30-21:30	Reception party at LiSE
Day 2	8:30-9:30	Session 1:
	9:50-10:50	Session 2 : Session 3:
	11:00-12:	Session 4 : Session 5:
	12:00-13:00	Lunch: Student learning session
	13:00-13:10	Closing remark
	13:30-14:30	Committee for organizing symposium

The Programme is being updated accordingly. The candidate topics of each session are; disease control and aging society, hi-tech research (genome, device), Data system, Social system for aging society etc..

FEE Free of charge for both online and onsite participation
4,000-4,500JPY for reception party

LOCATION

School of Health Innovation

Keio University Tonomachi Town Campus

3-25-10 Tonomachi, Kawasaki-ku, Kawasakishi, Kanagawa
210-0821

<https://www.shi.kuhs.ac.jp/en/location/>

SIGN UP (Maximum allowed for onsite participation: 60)
<https://www.shi.kuhs.ac.jp/1351/?lang=en>

Share interests and discuss actions for the future

Planning and Management

[Host]School of Health Innovation

[Co-host and secretariat]

Center for Innovation Policy

*Both organizations are under the umbrella of Kanagawa University of Health Service